

CLAYTON HOTEL

BURLINGTON ROAD | DUBLIN

Clayton Hotel Burlington Road Sustainability Statement

At the Clayton Hotel Burlington Road we believe that economic growth and the wellbeing of society are inextricably linked to the health of the environment. We embrace our responsibility for environmental leadership and we are committed to integrating environmental practices and sustainability principles into our core business strategy. We want our initiatives and strategies to positively impact the guest experience. We look after our staff, our customers, our community and our environment in the following ways.

- We train our people to care for our guests
- We train our people to look out for one another
- We train our people to look after the environment OUR CUSTOMERS
- We use track all feedback to ensure we continue to impress our guests
- We encourage local recruitment
- We support local suppliers
- We implement preventive maintenance programmes within the hotel to ensure the efficient operation and energy usage of equipment/plant Water
- We monitor water consumption on a weekly basis to establish trends & reduce consumption
- We adjust urinal flush to the minimum frequency
- We only use energy saving specification light bulbs-LED, We have recently installed LED's in all bedrooms and Bedroom corridors.
- We fit key card energy reduction systems in all guest rooms
- Where appropriate we install movement sensors for lighting in all staff areas to include: Linen Rooms, locker rooms, storage rooms, underground car park and old nightclub areas etc.
- We control exterior lighting by photocell switches or actively managed timer switches
- We have installed a Building Management System (BMS) to maximize efficiency of equipment Purchasing
- We use eco-friendly products where possible
- We use recyclable products, paper, plastic, bottles etc. Waste Management
- We introduce methods to facilitate recycling
- We promote food waste processing
- We train our employees in Environmental Awareness and best practices.